Chapter 22
Imperialism, 1871–1914

People
J. A. Hobson
Karl Pearson
Jules Ferry
Rudyard Kipling
David Livingstone
Henry Stanley
Helen Hunt
Julio Roca
Albert Beveridge
Theodore Roosevelt

Terms
Imperialism
White Man’s Burden
“Open Door” policy
Scramble for Africa
detribalization
Indian Wars
Conquest of the Desert
Manifest Destiny
Roosevelt Corollary
Crystal Palace

Knowledge/Understanding Questions

1. Describe the economy of the West at the beginning of the twentieth century.

2. How were the Western powers startled twice by Japan in this period?

3. Why was 1857/58 a watershed time for India?

4. What was the purpose of the international conference held in Berlin in 1885?

5. How did Europeans view the African peoples?

6. Describe two policies of the European settlers towards indigenous people.

7. Explain how the United States came to dominate the region of Latin America.

8. How did the United States enter into a war with Spain, and what was its significance?

9. For what purposes were International Expositions held?

10. Describe what was significant about the St. Louis World’s Fair of 1904.